Mr. Frederick Ufferfilge

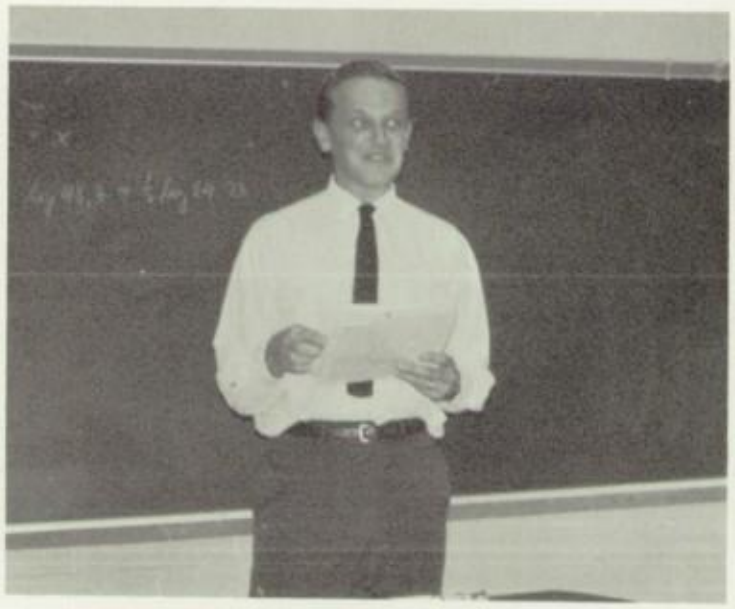
Dedication

In recognition of the sincere interest, time, and energy which he has devoted to us, we, the Class of 1969, proudly dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Frederick Ufferfilge.

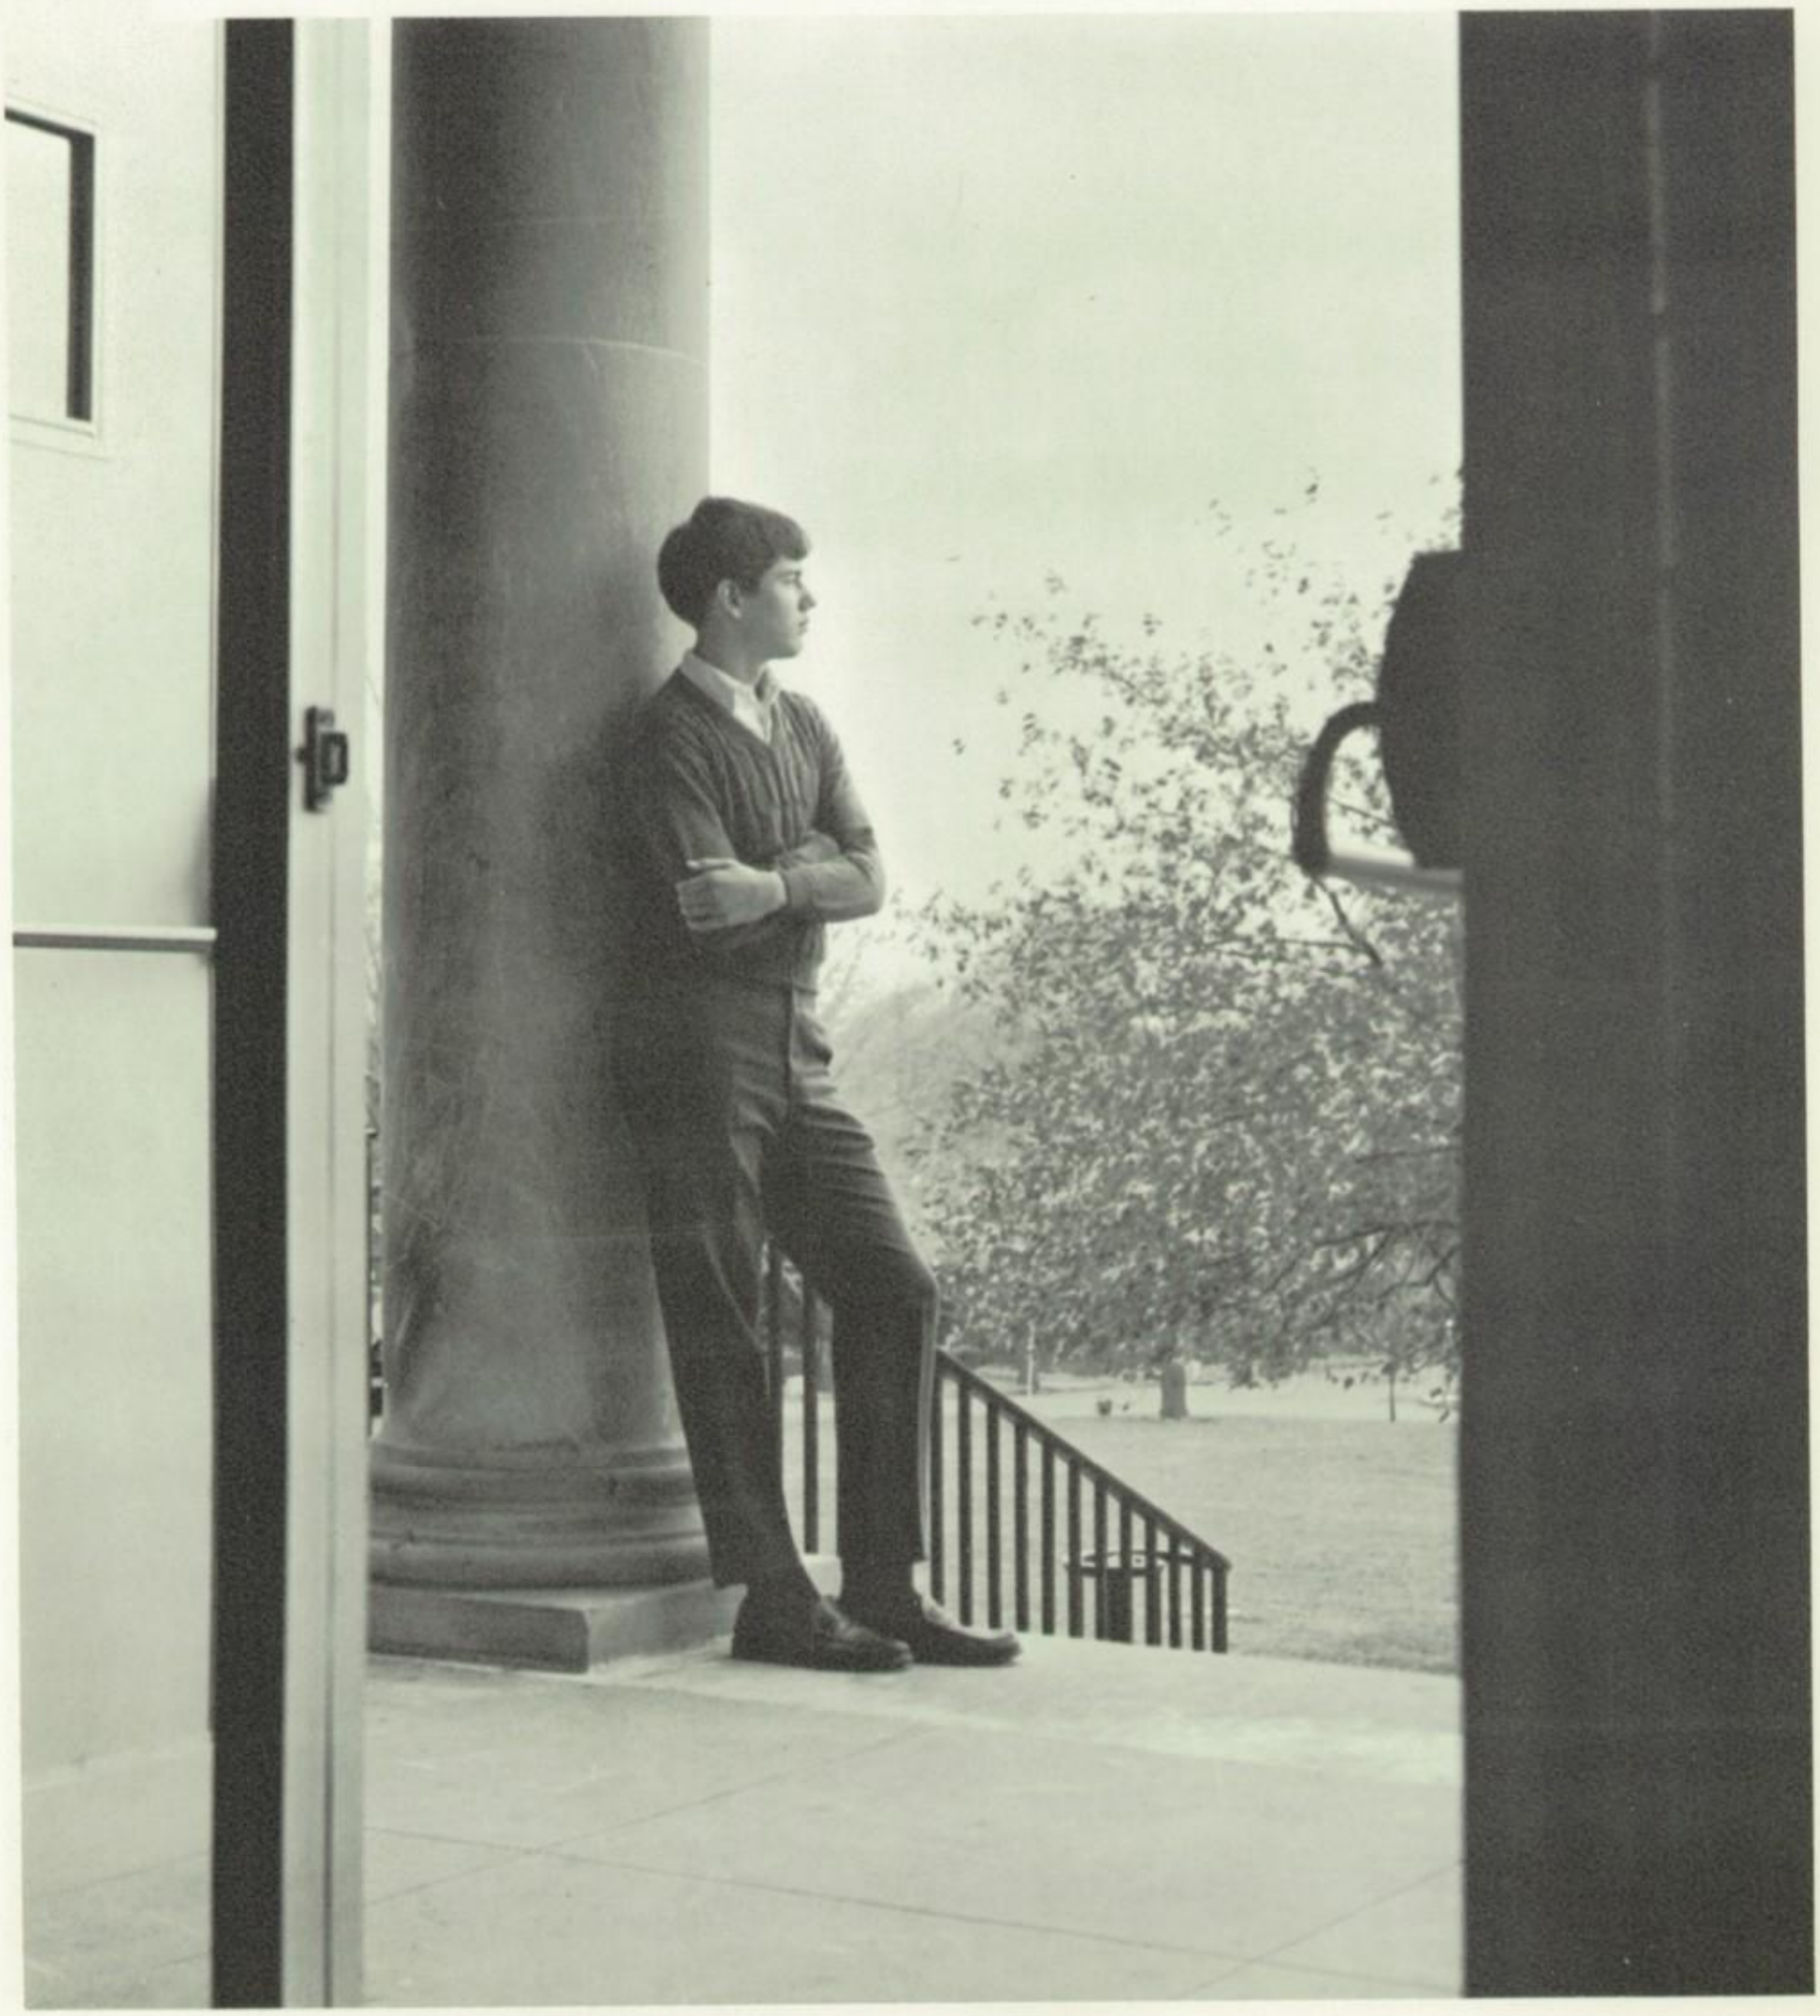
Mr. Ufferfilge joined the Ramsey staff as a member of the math department upon graduation from Wagner College in 1961. He became active in sports and has coached various teams over the years. Last year, as head coach of our track team, he generated tremendous enthusiasm among the team members through his outstanding loyalty to "his boys."

This year, Mr. Ufferfilge is active in another phase of our high school activity. As assistant advisor to the Honor Society, he has helped these students to become interested in the activities of their classmates by supervising the tutoring system and informal debates. He has set an outstanding example for his students through his honest and upright character.

In the years to come we will remember Mr. Ufferfilge as a wonderful teacher and a true friend. We are deeply indebted to him for his loyalty to us both as individuals and as a class. We hope that by dedicating our yearbook to him, he will always remember the Class of 1969.



In the midst of the personified impersonal
a personality stood here.



He was the SCHOLAR . . .

whose motivation was his desire to know,
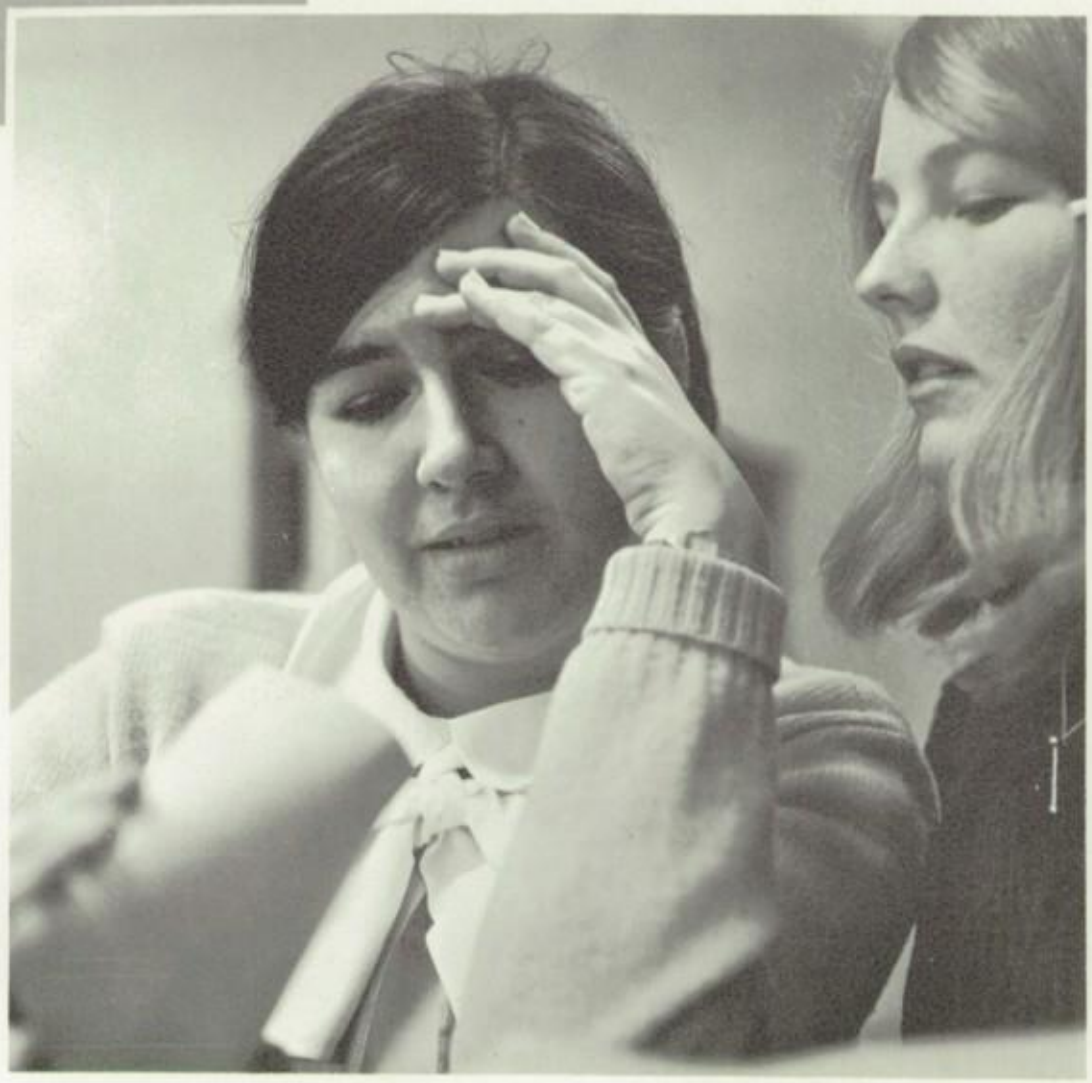
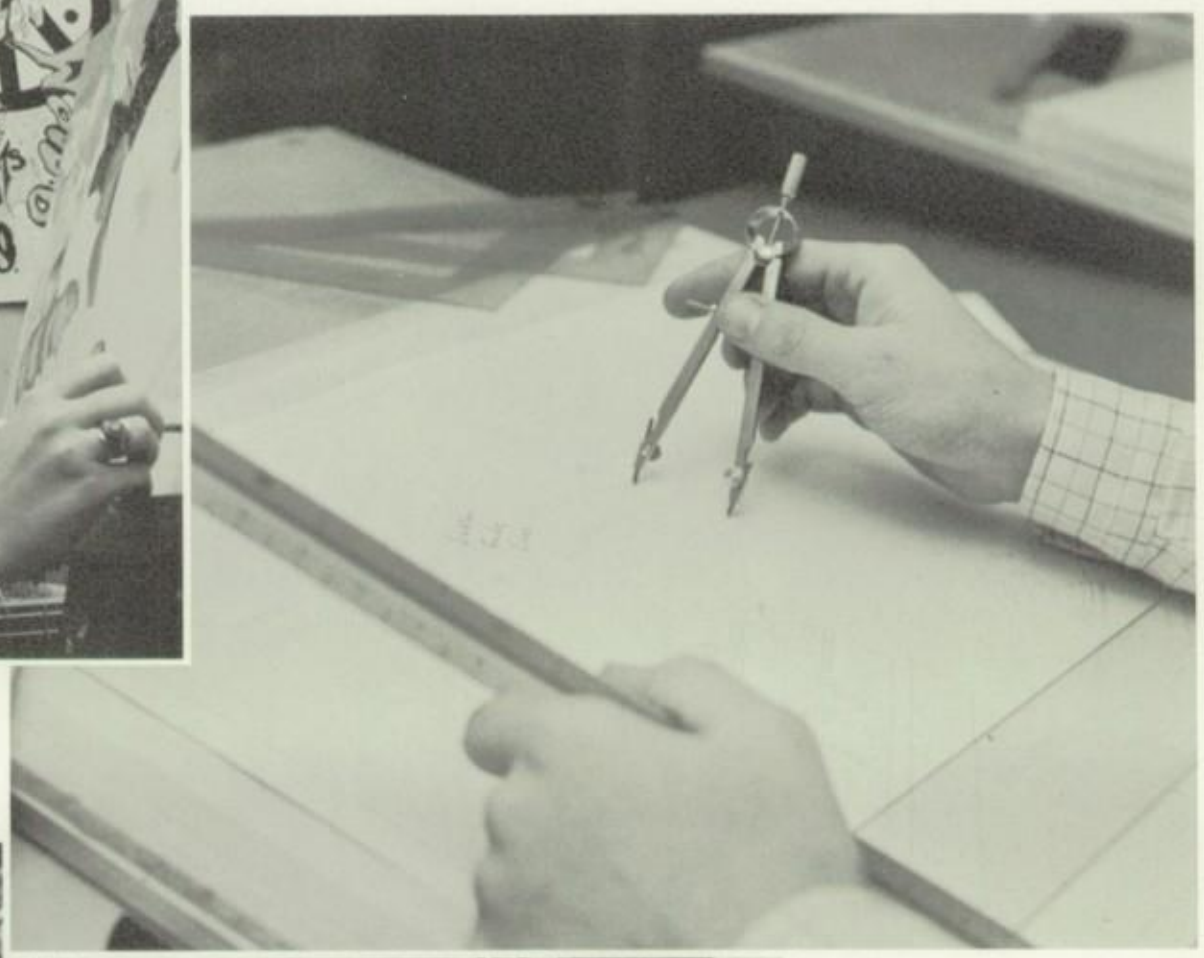
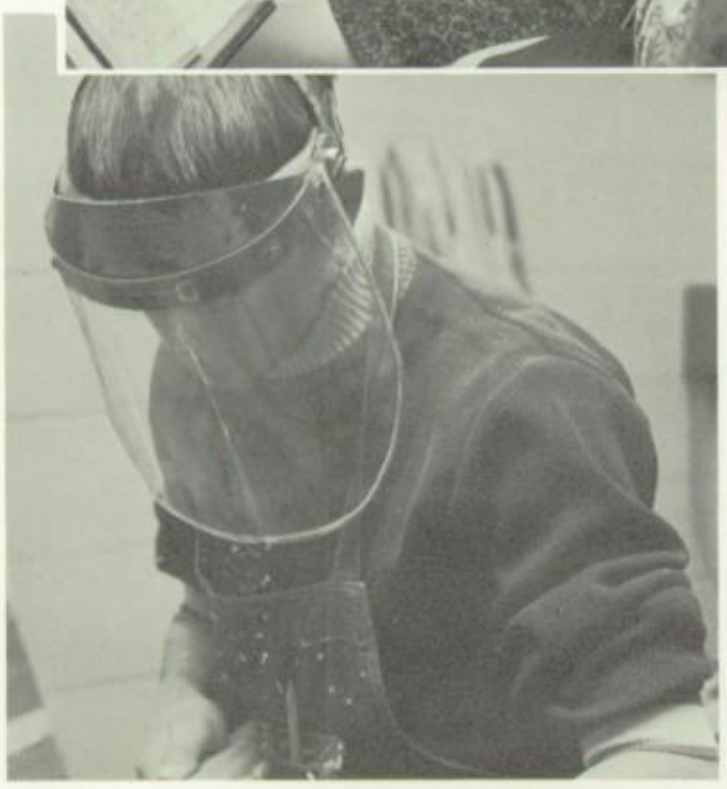
whose delight was in the
challenging course,
whose distraction was
the grade.

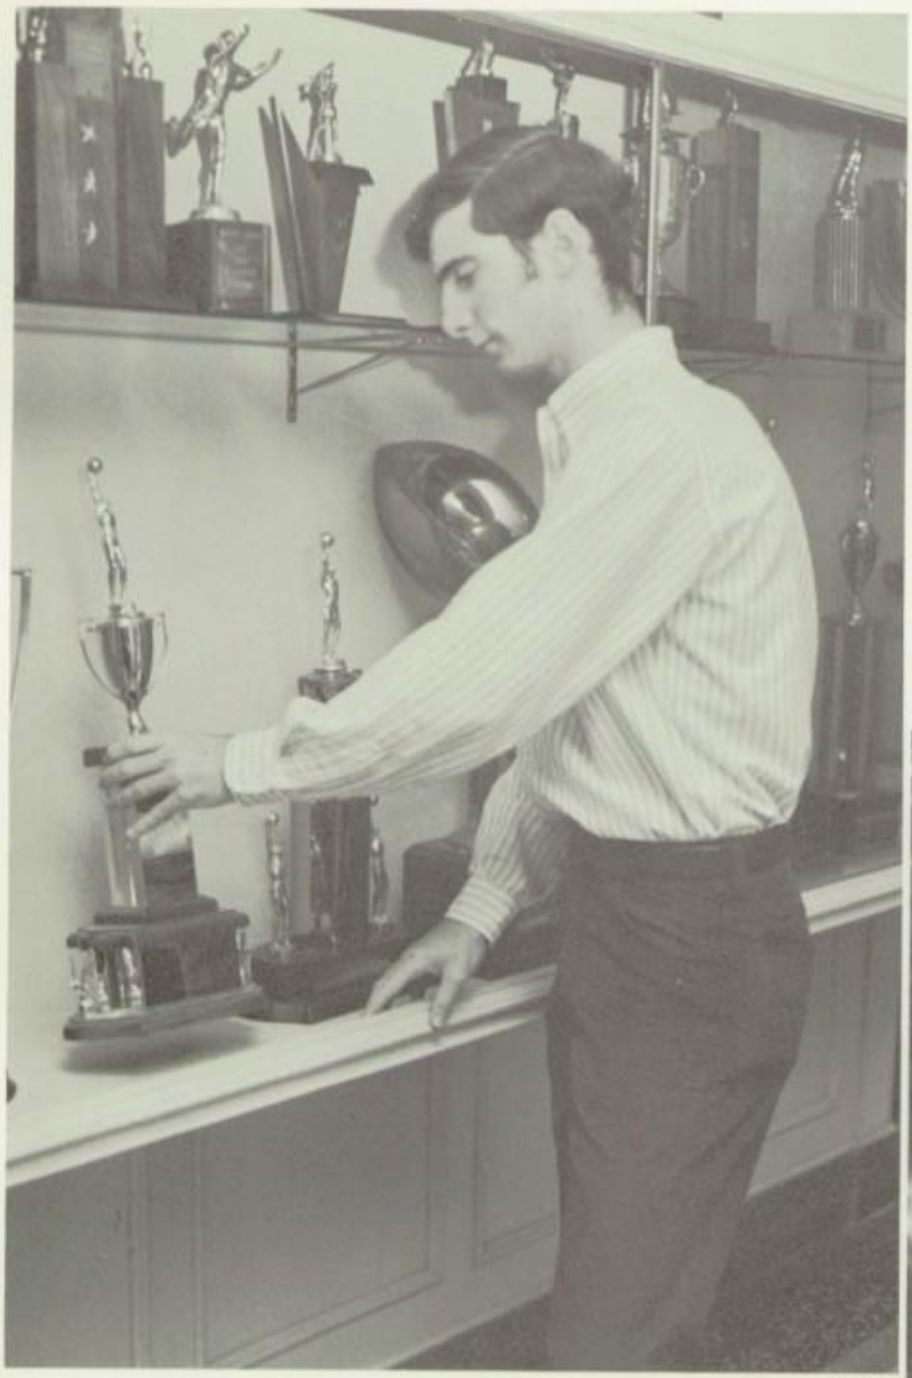


He was the ARTIST . . .





Whose means of expression were the brush, pen and instrument.



He was the ATHLETE . . .

at best winning, at worst losing,
but never content to sit on the sideline
knowing neither victory nor defeat.

He was the JOINER . . .

giving his time and effort to this high school in return for responsibility and reward.

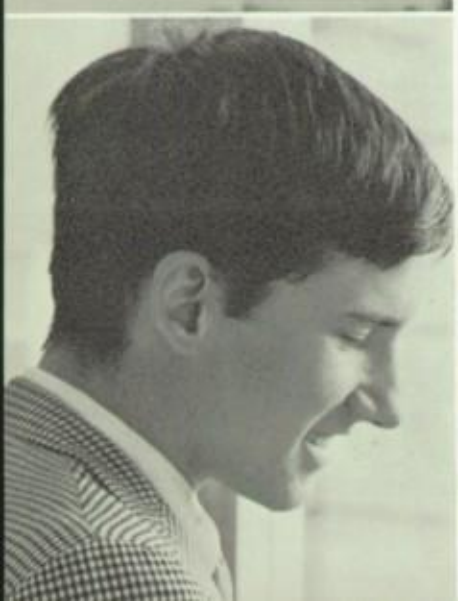
He was the PHILOSOPHER . . .

questioning events around him,

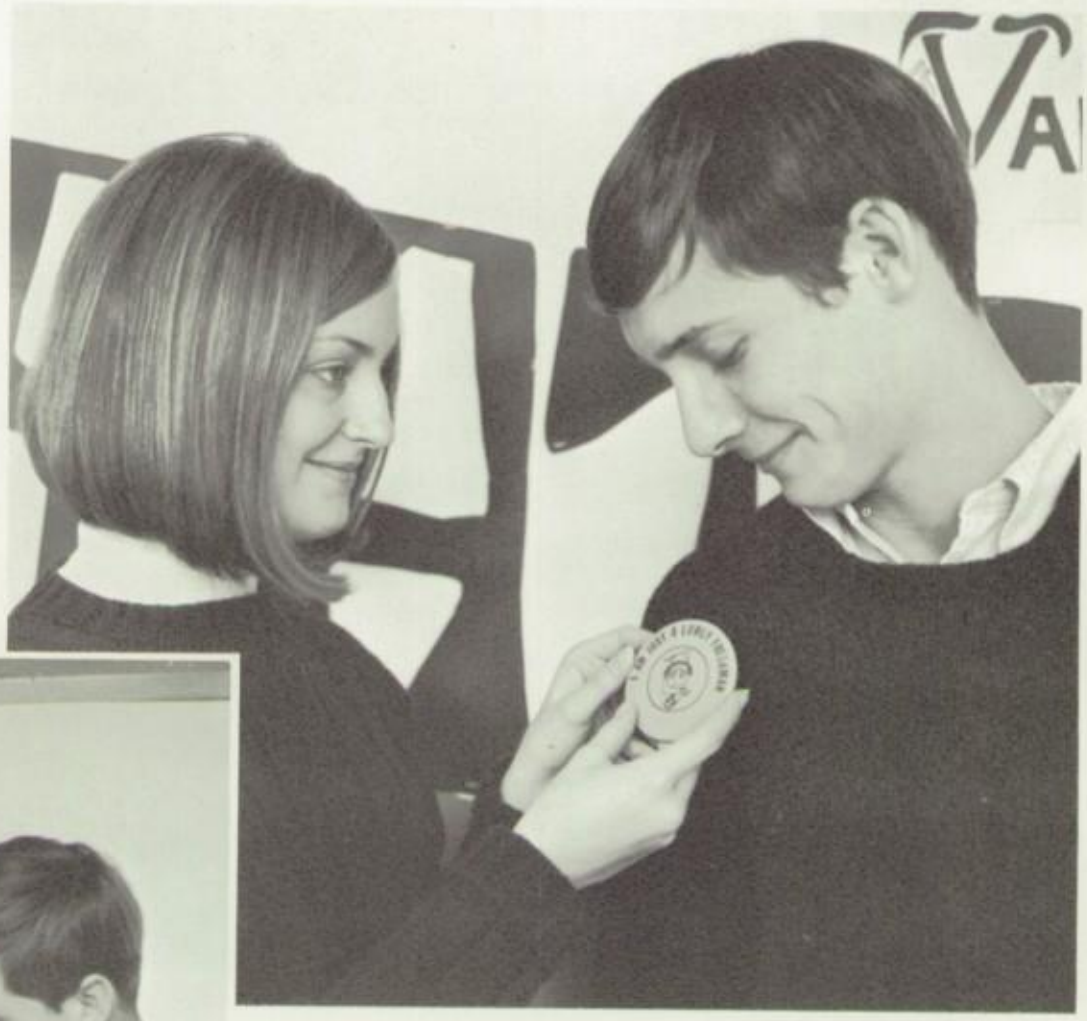
wondering where he was going,

asking who he was.

He was YOU.



You are a part of all that you have met in these four years.



You were of this school . . .

at this time.

You were influenced by your relationship with these people.

We invite you to recall the people and the events which helped make you the personality who stood here.

THERE WAS A ROAD for the Seniors to follow and it had no walls, no fences. The road seemed very long and sometimes the journey was tiresome and dusty. But now the road ends in a large open place with a wind, and the journey was not so long. And there were fields to stray through along the way and trees that gave shelter from the rain, and most of all people to laugh with, traveling the same road with you. There were many places to wander to reach the end of the road and some of the flowers that were picked to carry along the way have died and turned brown. But there is no way to go back and find them again. There is only the unknown road of the future to follow with more flowers waiting to be picked by the people of R.H.S.

CLASS HISTORY

"You should be proud to be freshmen. You should be proud to be part of Ramsey High School. Show your school spirit by wearing your Freshman Buttons on Freshman Day, and soon your lowly status will be as worn out as your brand new loafers." Thus spake our Student Council President on that Freshman initiation day so long ago, and yet so near in our memories. With this welcoming pep-speech we were introduced into the daily routine of high school life.

There is a building, and there are rooms, and things to do but mostly there are people. People to like and dislike, voices to recognize coming down a hall, faces to remember across a cafeteria, a study hall, in a crowd. In the beginning it is someplace to learn. Then the strangers become otherselves who mirror emotions of each other as people who know each other do. Laughter, anger, confusion, shared and scattered. In the Spring it changes and becomes empty, but for a year it is mostly people.

And in that first year of mass confusion, of strange students, teachers, and feelings, a new addition of Ramsey High School was being built in our midst. We found ourselves as part of the old, stately, familiar school as well as part of the new modern building which we know today. It was in this period of difficult adjustments that we finally found our true selves in the reflected faces of our classmates which became more familiar, and more friendly each day. Once we felt a part of this group, we began to spread out, individually; timidly at first, until what developed was a huge flooding wave which washed us along the road to maturity.

We dutifully attended all the schools' functions; the Junior and Senior Plays, the Pep Rallies, the games, the Toast of the Towns; yet they became less of a duty and more of a pleasure. Although most of that year was spent in anticipation of our own participation in the future, we felt just as important by supporting our school because finally we thought of it as ours.

Our Freshman year ended two weeks early since we had somehow sacrificed our February and Easter vacations in exchange for a new addition of the school. The Student Council and Administration tried to compensate for this by a "no-test" week, but never had a summer vacation been so welcomed.

There are so many feelings in my small world.
Too many feelings to sort the pleasure from the pain.
There is much giving to growing.
Wandering in a maze of smiles and voices that take part of me with them.

Our Sophomore year found us more involved as we realized that by putting actions behind beliefs we could begin to reach the universal goal to which each of us would branch out and find the meaning of life. It was people who taught us the importance of the giving of ourselves.

It was still difficult to activate our beliefs individually as Sophomores, but if not for our class' enthusiasm at the Turnabout Dance, it would have Backed up! As "Upperlowers" we entitled ourselves to four pages in the Ram Register along with music in the cafeteria, although the latter diminished in record supply as well as in volume. Yet our class continued to grow.

We waited in anticipation for that day—
When all the colors of life that had touched us—
And left a mark on our growth—
Would fuse—the giving and the taking—
Our feeling and seeing into being.
There is no end in sight, for most of what we Know now—This is the beginning—A somewhat shakey start, but the beginning. Surrounded by the new and the old.
Ready to make those dreams come true
Questions quickly float by, with only ideas for answers.

But how to differentiate between the new and the old? We extended old traditions, but our interest in them was brand new. With the help of Miss Grillo, our Junior Class Advisor, we elected our class officers, and proved not only to others, but also to ourselves, that we could successfully handle our newly accepted responsibilities. We took part in such frivolities as the Prom, the Christmas card sale, the ordering of class rings, and the Junior Play. The only questions we left untouched were those on our PSAT's—questions which foreshadowed our Senior Year.

It becomes so easy to be lost in a crowd that moves and sways
There is a thread that makes a group goal an individual goal and an individual not alone because many people have had the same hopes.
The thread becomes weaker in that life which lasts four years and the individual builds his own goals apart from the rest. But for a long time he has worked with others in mind and he will always remember the strings of that thread.

The Senior Play, Androcles and the Lion, turned into one of the most successful in the history of Ramsey High. Not only was the audience and the profit tremendous, but the large cast, consisting of Nancy Wilson as the "lady Fair", Dean Butchovitz as the "noble knight", Russ Howell as the religious fanatic, and Margaret Sullivan as the shrewd, compassionate lion, whose deep growl suddenly turned into a petrified squawk as her cage almost toppled; showed our class' spirit.

The days were filled with the atmosphere of football, falling leaves, college applications, basketball, wrestling, honors earned, and the desperate feeling that there weren't enough hours in the day.

Time is the final test—
Time will dull the edges of memory but never completely erase the dreams of today.
For tomorrow is only an extension of today
And today is yesterday's dream.
New Horizons await you.
Be strong—accept the challenge.
Fond memories of the past,
present hopes and ambitions.
Apprehensions of the unknown.
Am I ready?
For dreams are reality.
And truth is your own belief.
Your will is destiny.
Now I am everyone and everything
for I am no one.
There is no me which stands like a mountain
solid and unchanging.
The me bends and sways, moved by a wind
that blows thru my days.
New voices, the sun, a smile all entice me
and I become them.
I wander and am led through hills of thought,
some too tall to climb.
And in the end when I am someone,
A being with boundaries,
When the search ends in things I am not,
I will remember now:
This year 1969—and this place—
Ramsey High School
Where I am everyone and everything
for I am no one,
becoming someone.

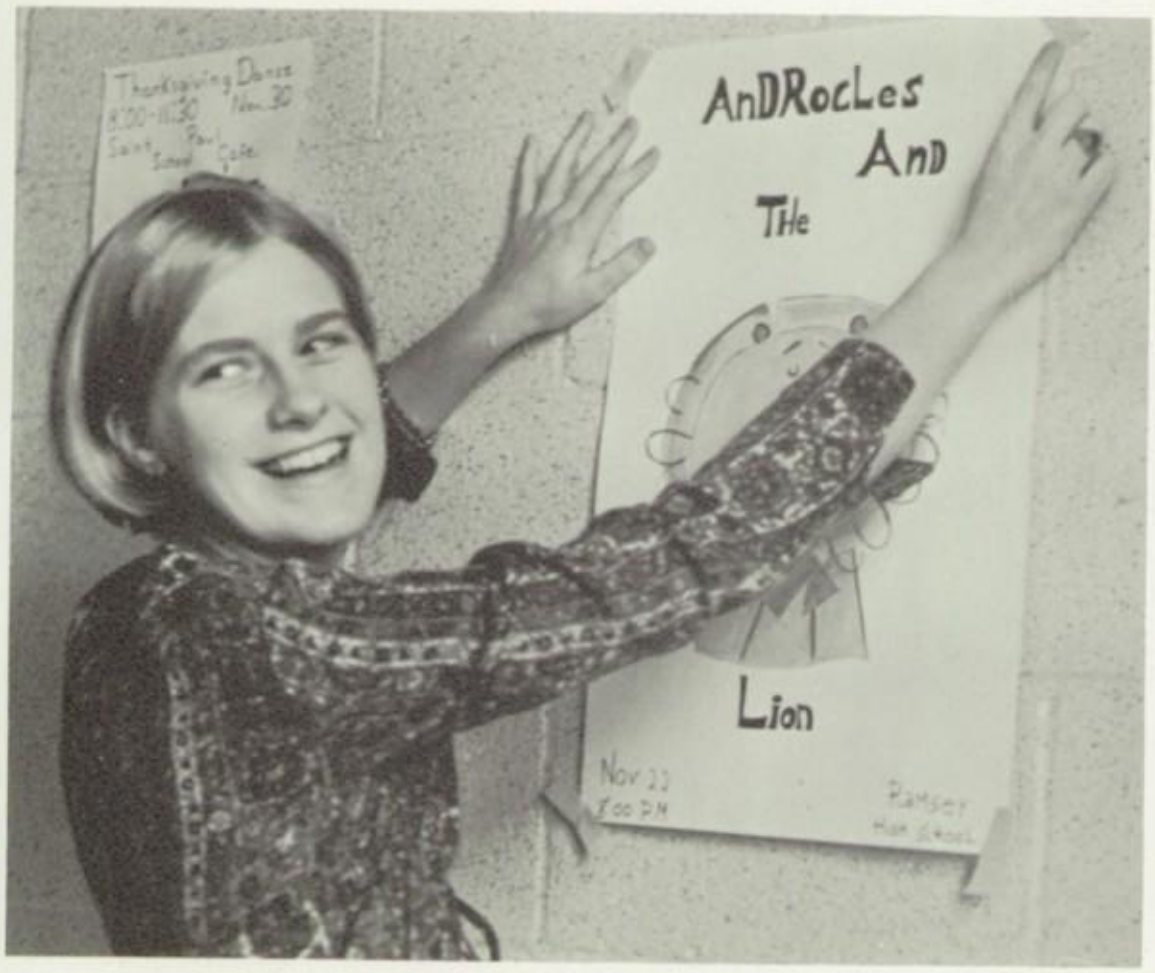
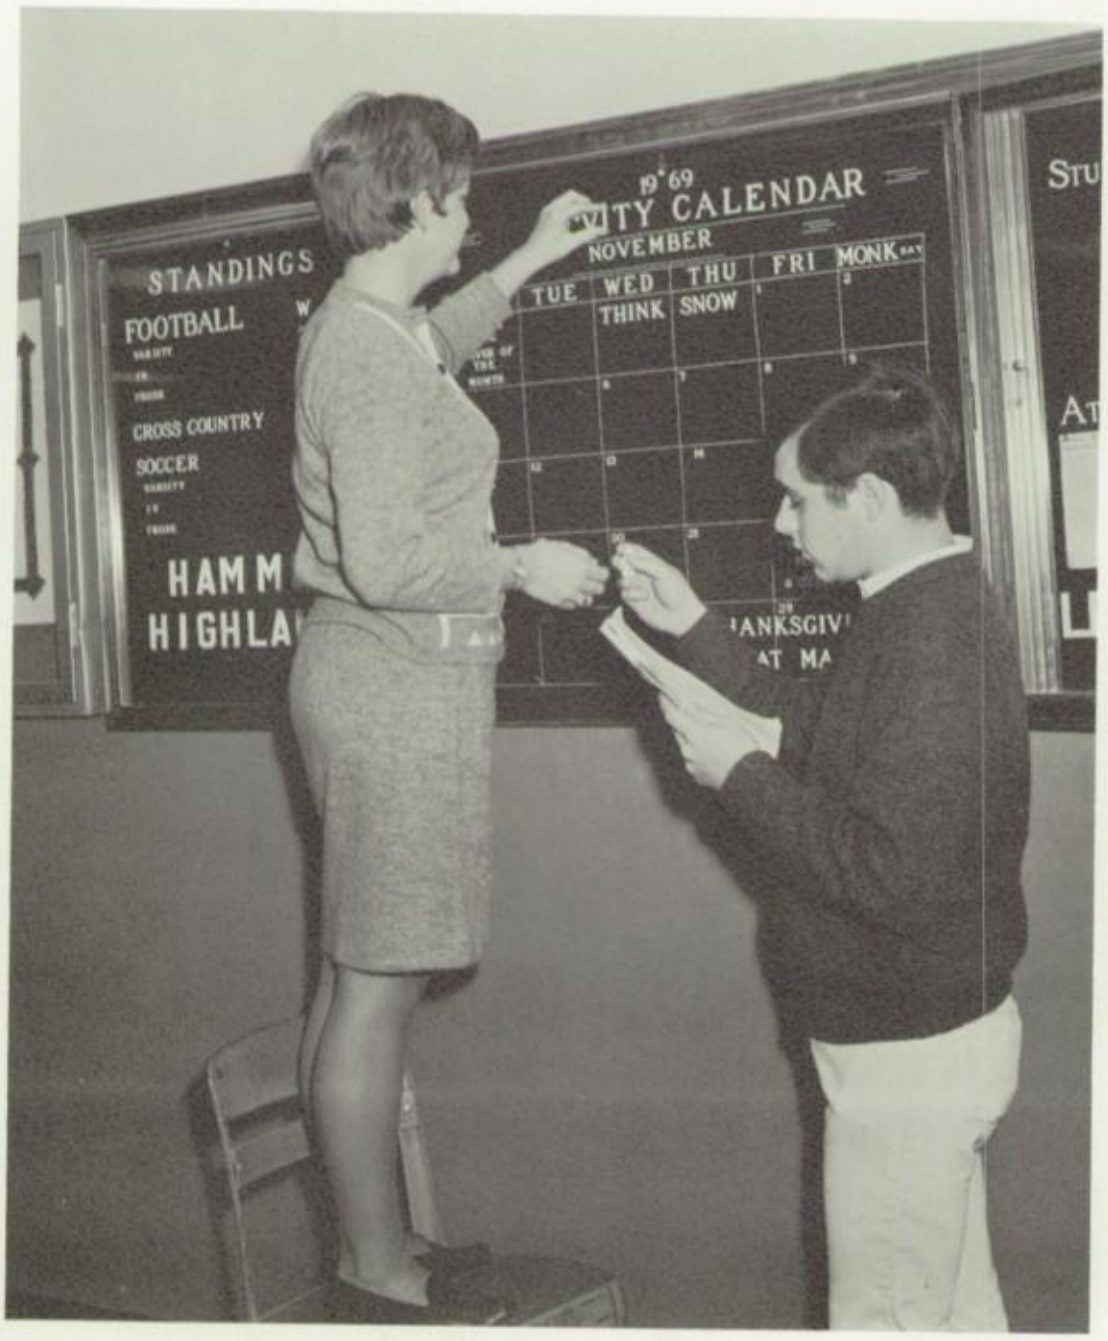
VARSITY





Some people care not that others know their name or know that they walked in a place for four years and felt deeply for one thing or maybe two—but there are other people who must speak to an audience, who must perform for applause, who must mold a feeling into a design of life that others may touch and watch moe. They do it because they must share mind and laughter briefly with the people here, because apathy is a flat rock in a moving stream of lonely sameness. Or finally because to be young is to whirl and bow in a mirrored room and not watch from the shadows.

THE LION

On November 22, 1968, the Senior Class presented "Androcles and the Lion," a two-act play written by George Bernard Shaw, based on an Ancient Roman legend.

The performance, directed by Mrs. Dee, was a great success; the audience was enthusiastic and all were pleased with a task well done.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, led this year by John Boudiette, strove to have more student involvement and also kept up traditional council projects. The innovation of a cafeteria suggestion box and a new soda machine, as well as the continuation of pep-days, dances and Teacher Appreciation Week made this a successful year. The high point of the year was the Toast of the Towns Talent Show.

National Honor Society

Based on qualities of scholarship, leadership, character and service, outstanding seniors are received into the national honor society. This year 42 seniors had the high honor of membership in the society.

INGEBORG JUNG

CLUB OFFICERS

American Field Service

The purpose of American Field Service is to promote friendship and understanding between nations. This is done by a student "exchange." Ramsey High sends a student abroad and receives one as well. This year we were proud to receive Ingeborg Jung, our A.F.S. student from Germany. It is hoped that these students will live in and get accustomed to the culture of the foreign country.

G.A.L.

G.A.L. is a girls' service organization which consists of Juniors and Seniors with a "B" average. Activities include community service projects, a Thanksgiving "mum" sale and the Coronation Ball. G.A.L. members also vote on the various kings of sports.

G.U.Y.

G.U.Y. is a service club composed of upperclass boys. It is most noted for the Coronation Ball which it sponsors with G.A.L. Other activities include an inter-school dance.

GENERAL ORGANIZATION

The General Organization is established by the Board of Education to regulate the financial procedures for the school. It approves the school budget for extra curricular athletic activities. All other clubs, classes and organizations deposit their money with the G.O. treasurer, Mr. Caputi. Money may be drawn out by a written order to the treasurer.

French Club

The French club meets to further their understanding and appreciation of the French culture. It takes several field trips each year.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is composed o all interested Spanish students. Th Club's activities include a Christma Party and a spring field trip to se "Man of La Mancha."

German Club

The purpose of the German Club is to promote interest in the German language, people, customs and history. This year's club sponsored a Fasching, a traditional German festival.

Latin Club

The main objective of this club is to entertain as well as enlighten its members. The Club's motto is "Fiat Lux"—"Let there be Light."

Chemistry League

The "Chem League" meets once a month with Mrs. Corizzi to take a series of exams. Awards are given at the end of the year to the individual and team which scored the highest.

Math League

The Math League meets several other schools in competition each year. Competition of this high caliber permits students to enhance their mathematical abilities.

Art Club

Any interested art student is eligible to join the Art Club. Advised by Mrs. Smith, the club raises money which is given as a scholarship to a deserving art student. The Art Club also strives to develop a deeper art appreciation in the students.

Future Teachers of America

The purpose of F.T.A. is to prepare interested students for future careers in teaching by offering them exploratory views of the profession. The club hosts guest speakers at its meetings, and visits the lower grade schools for teacher observance.

Ram Staff

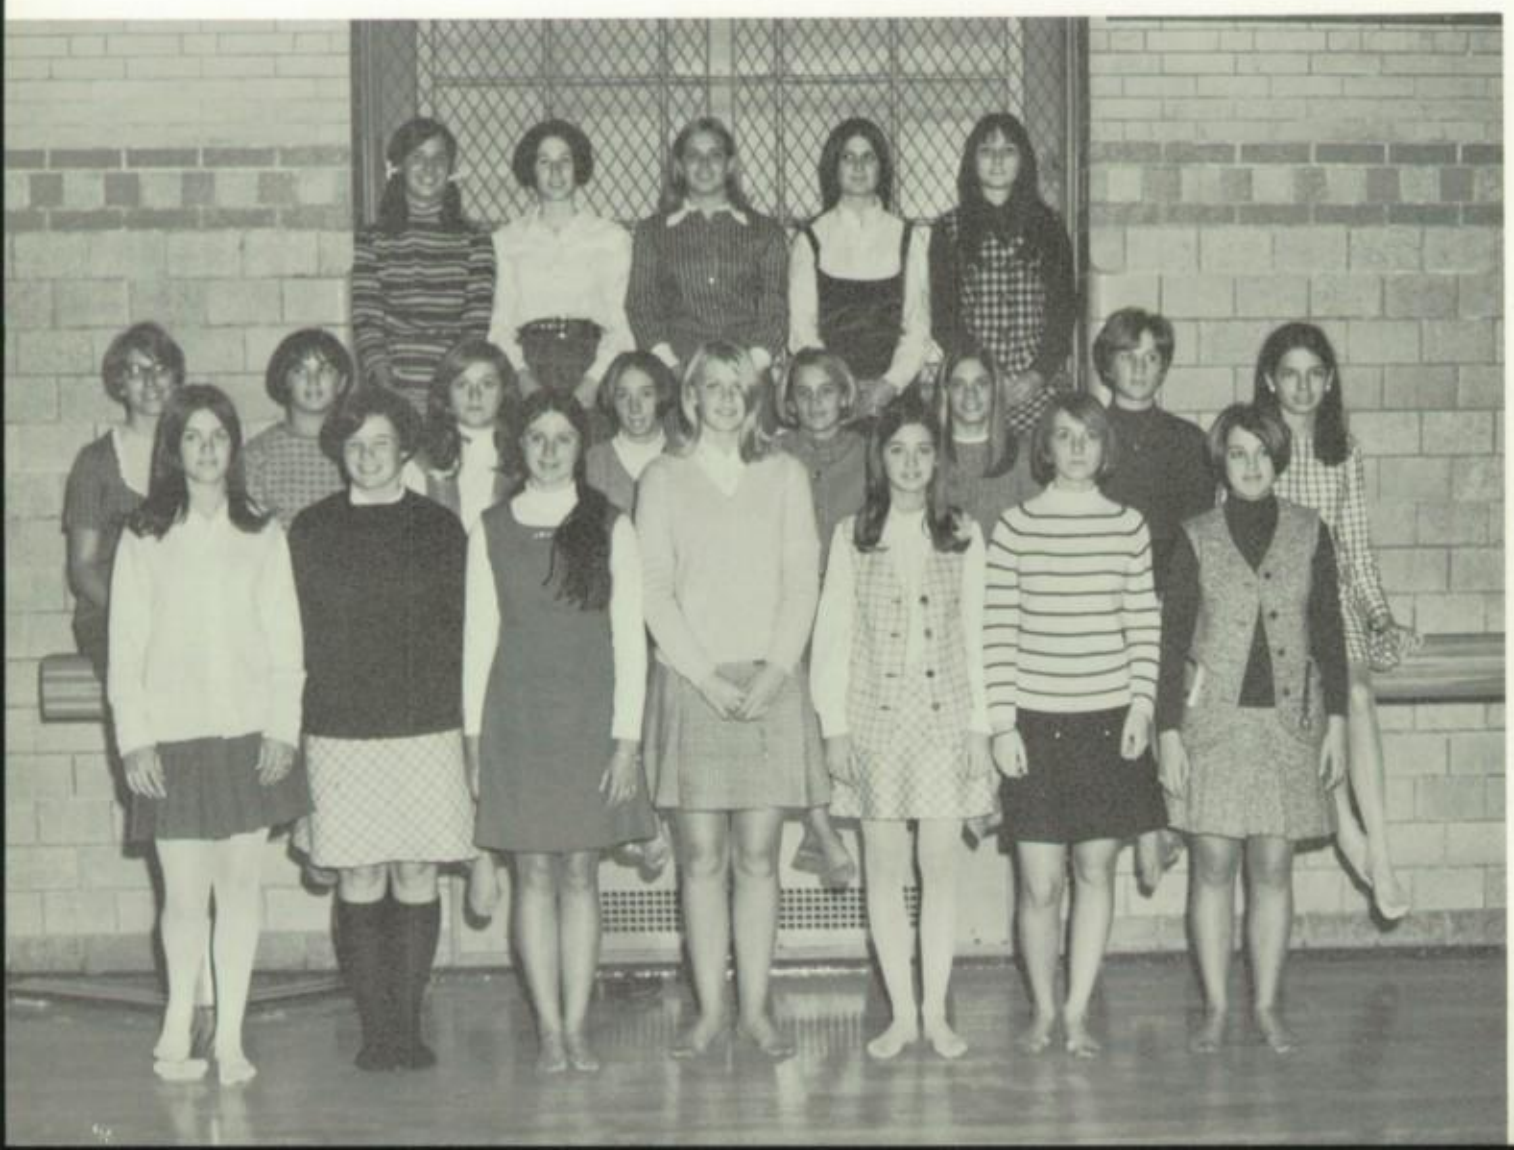
Under the new supervision of Mr. Rudin, the Ram Staff was able to produce a monthly newspaper covering every news phase of the high school. This year the circulation of the paper increased because it was available to all students at a lower cost.

Girls' Athletic Association

The G.A.A. is composed of all of the girls in the high school, and representatives are chosen from each gym class to attend meetings. The G.A.A. sponsors many sports activities for girls, and organizes girls' intramurals.

Athletic Association

Guided by Mr. Murray, the Athletic Association sells tickets and programs at all home football, wrestling and basketball games. The A.A. also sponsors the annual twirling contest which is held in April.

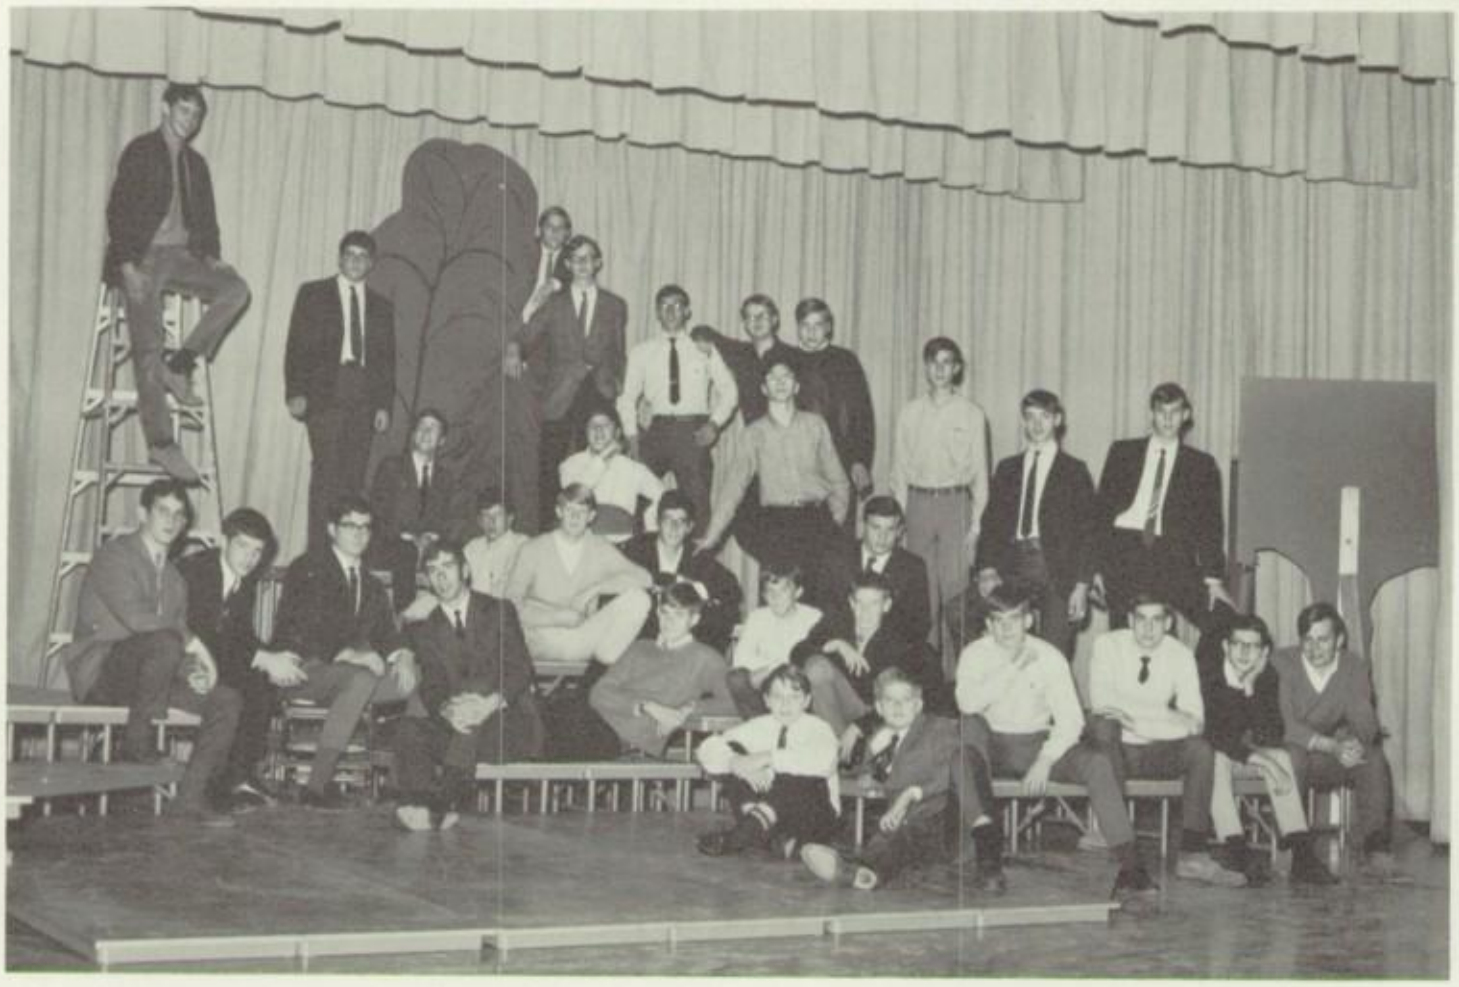


Leaders

The Gym teachers choose several athletic girls at the beginning of the year to be Leaders. These girls take two gym classes, their normal one plus one in which they aid the teachers in taking attendance and teaching skills. This is a new group at RHS.

Audio-Visual Aides

The A.V.A. is composed of volunteers who help the school by operating the audio-visual equipment, and distribute films and movies to teachers who need them.



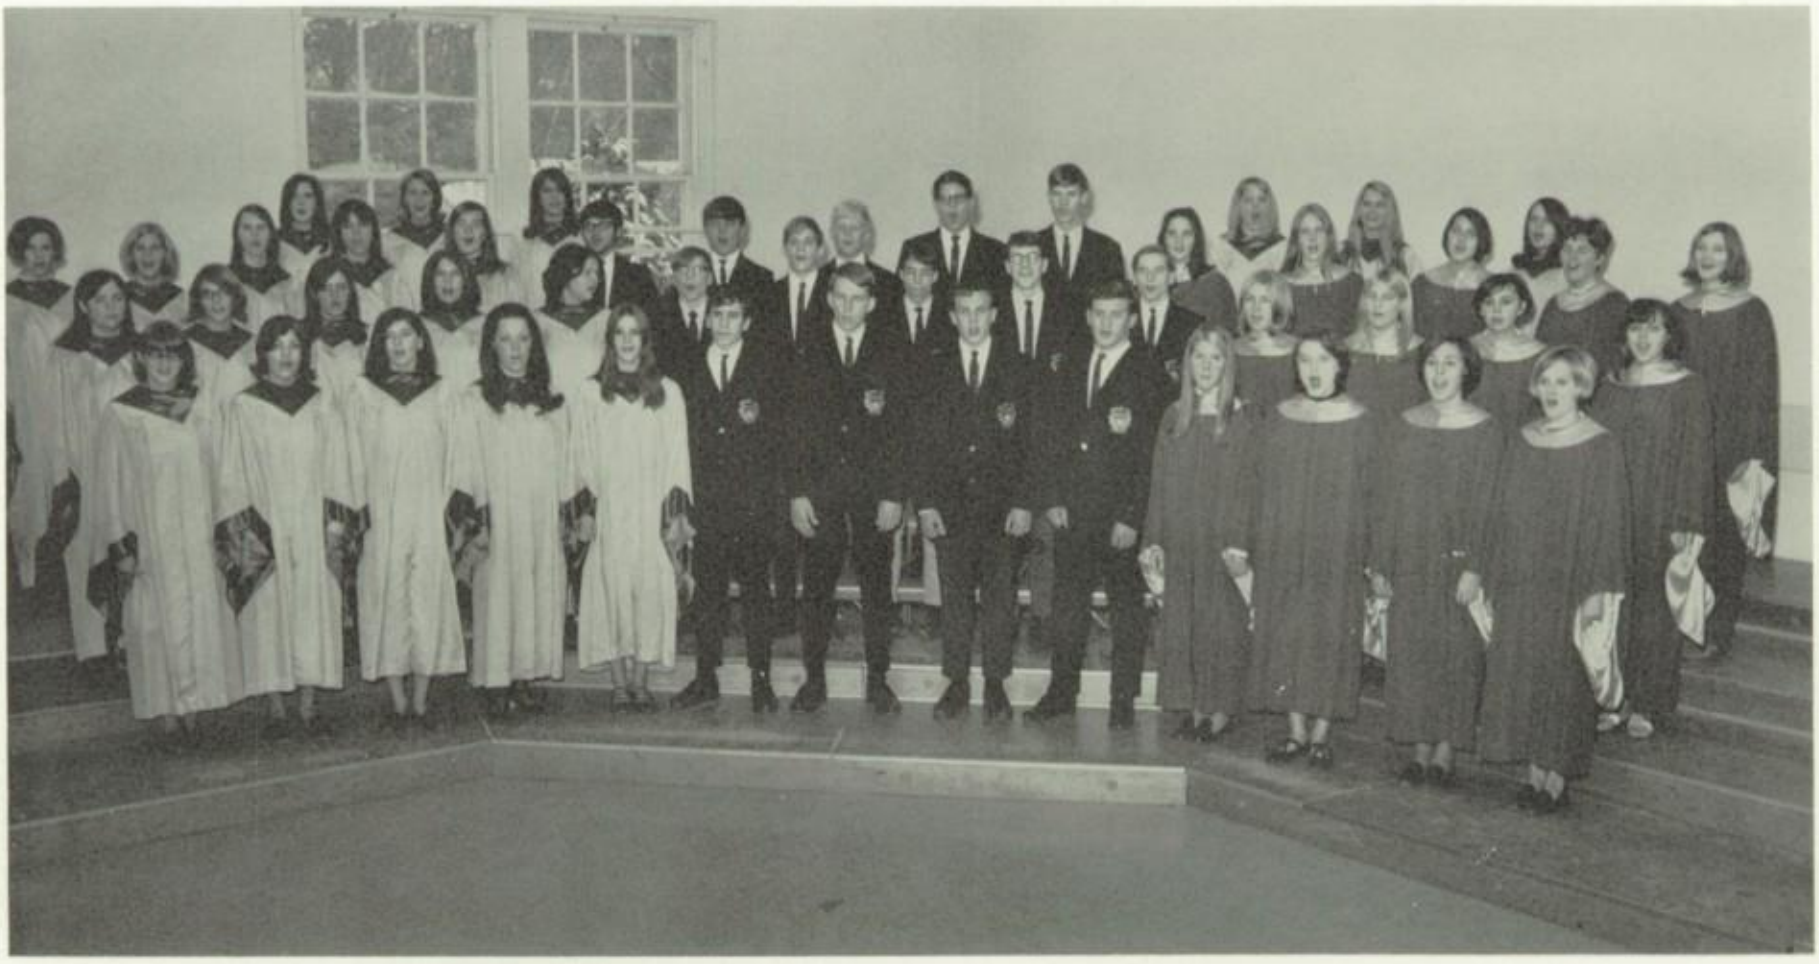
Stage Crew

The Stage Crew, an invaluable group of boys, is responsible for operating all of the facilities of the auditorium and stage.

Chorus

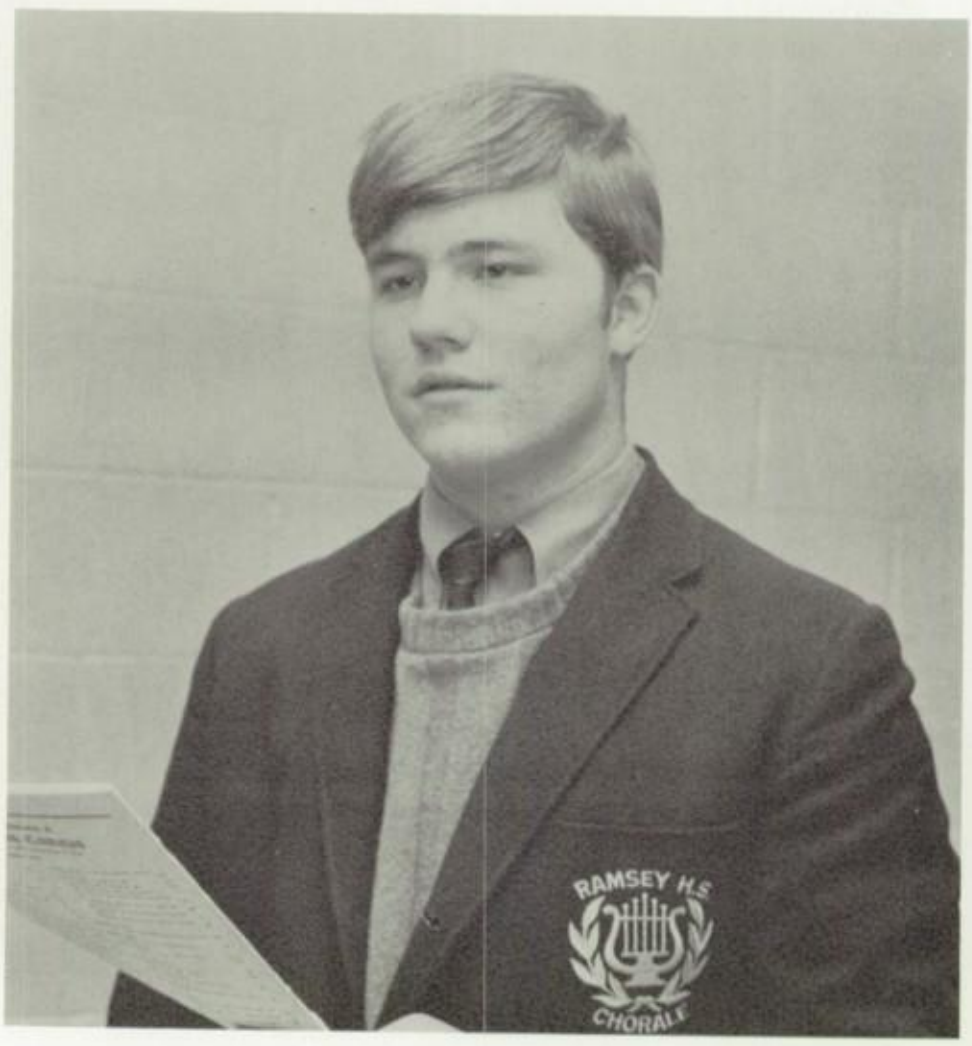
This year the chorus gave three concerts, the traditional Christmas concert with the band, a late-winter concert of Brahms' Requiem, and a Spring concert. Various choral groups sang throughout the community during the year.

The chorus also hosted the Temple University Concert Choir for a performance in January.

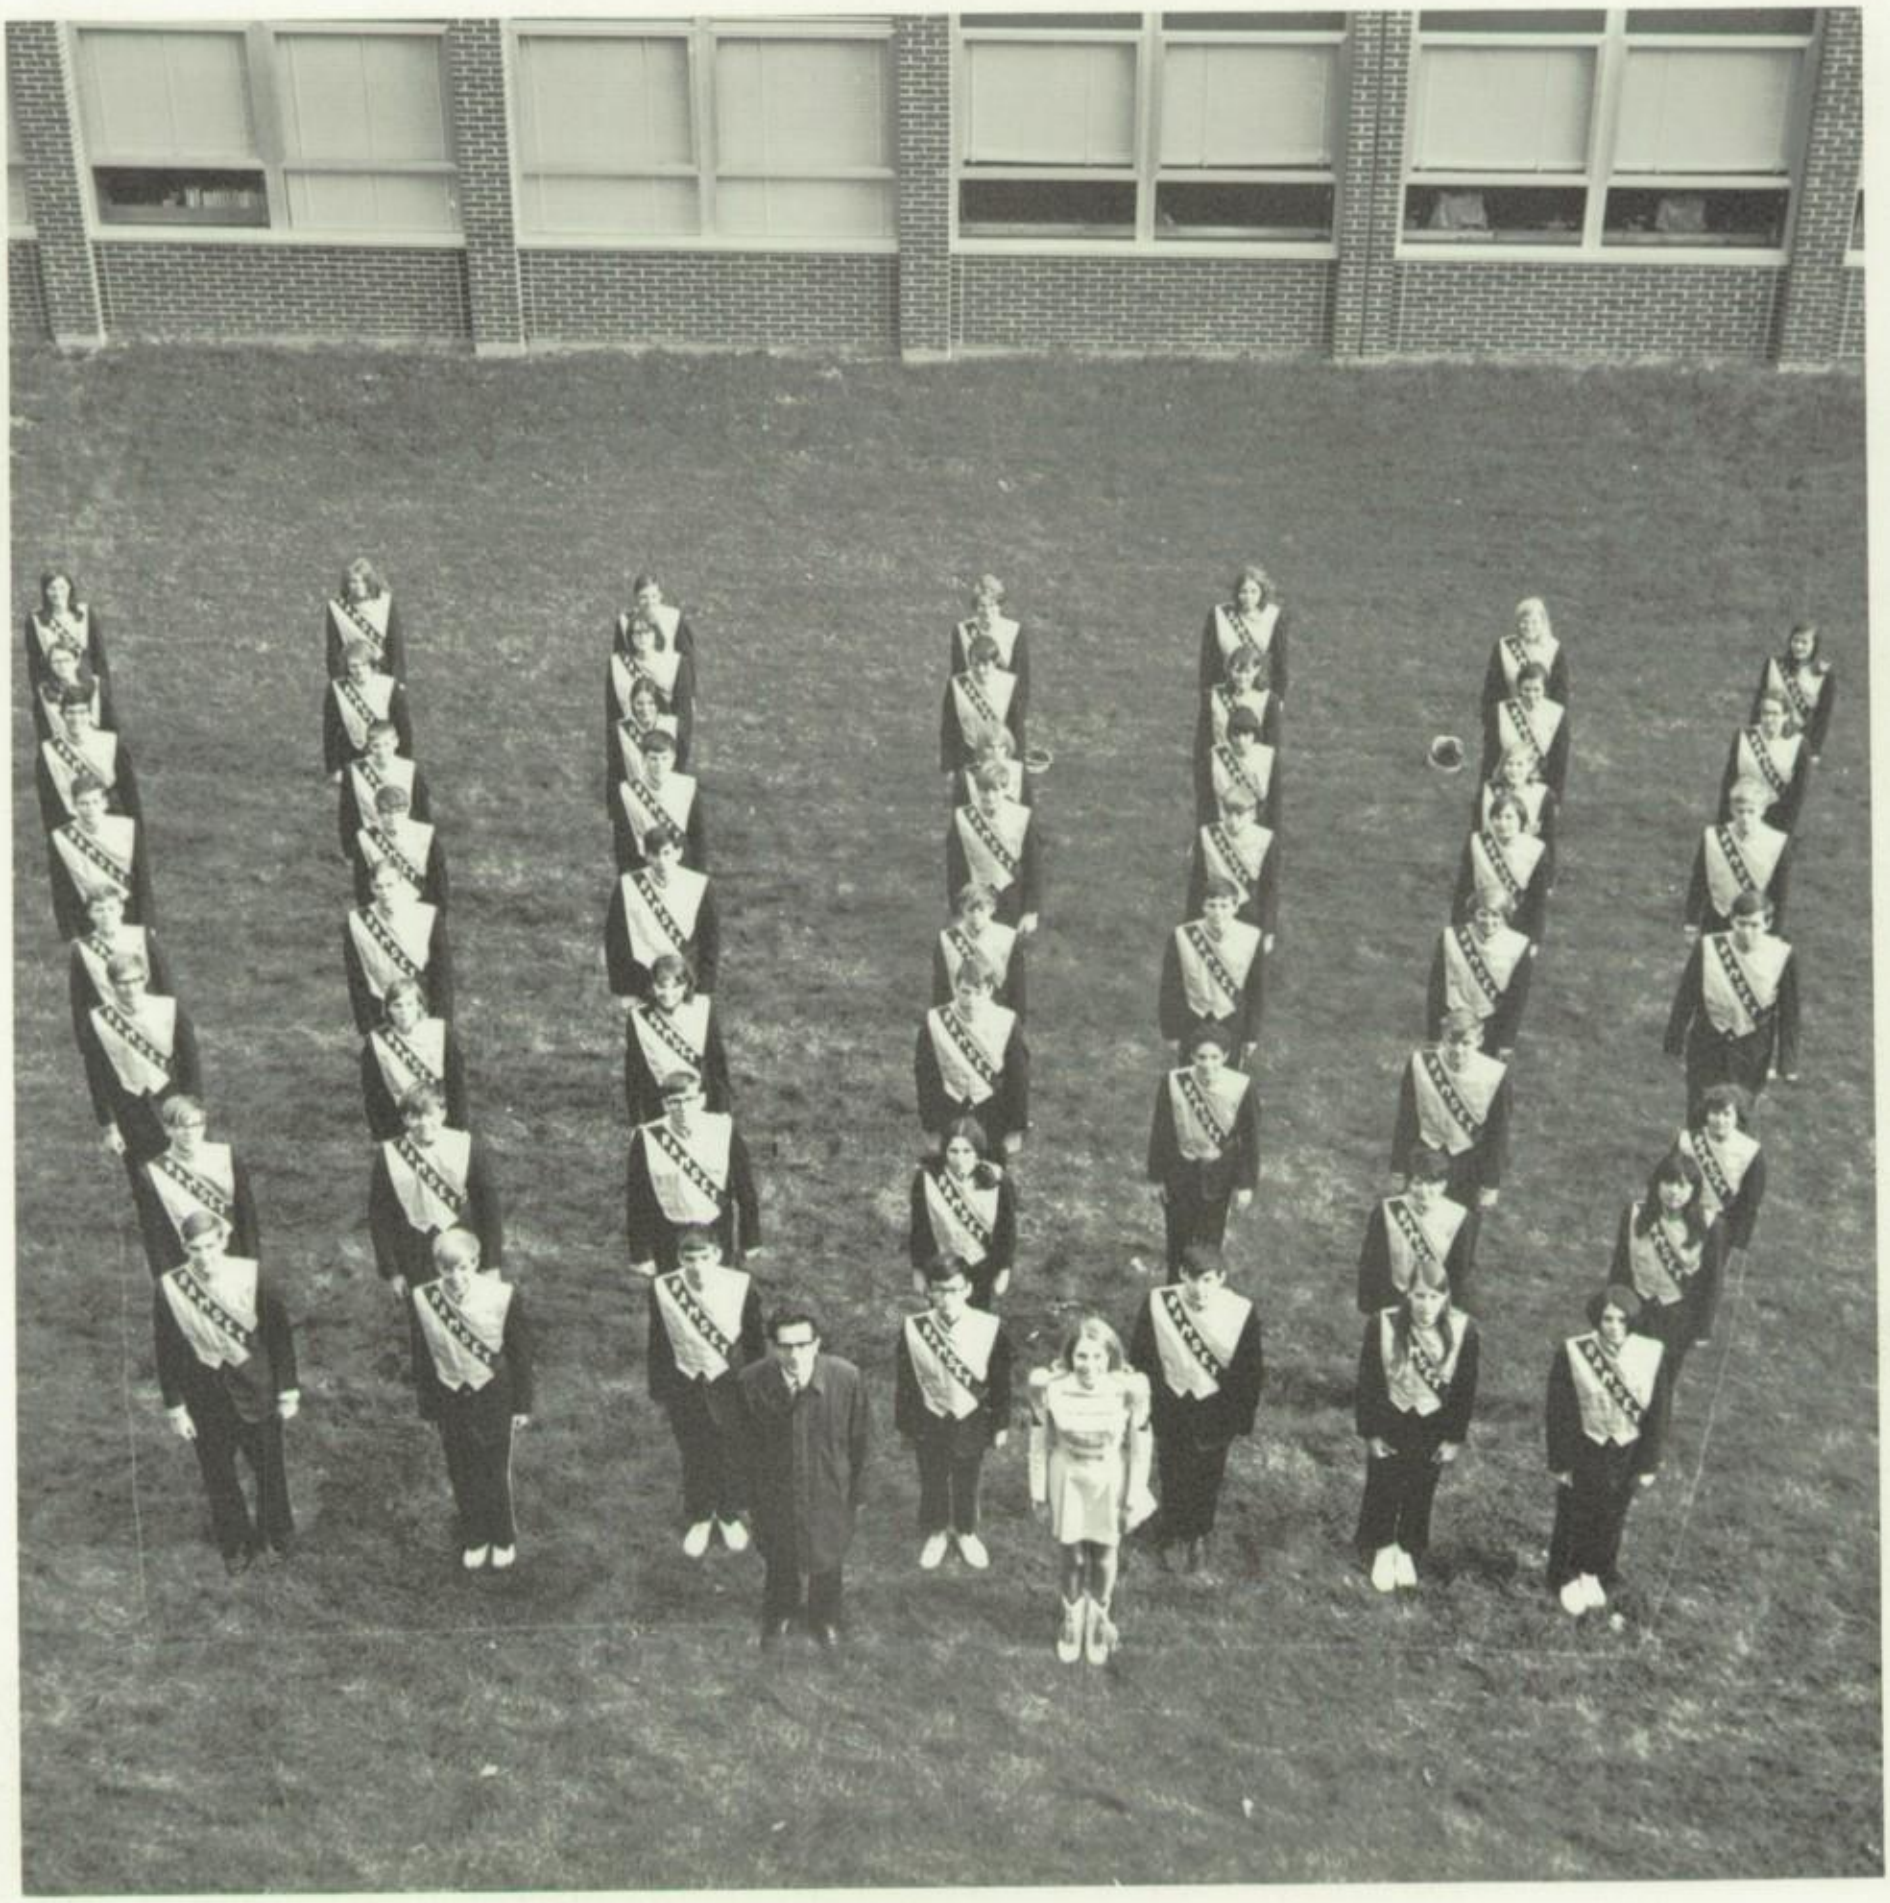


FRESHMAN CHORUS

CHORUS OFFICERS



ALL-STATE CHORUS
William Ockenfels



Band

The members of the band meet once a day under the direction of Mr. Bednar. They perform at all home football games and give two concerts; one at Christmas in cooperation with the Chorus and one in spring.

Varsity "R"

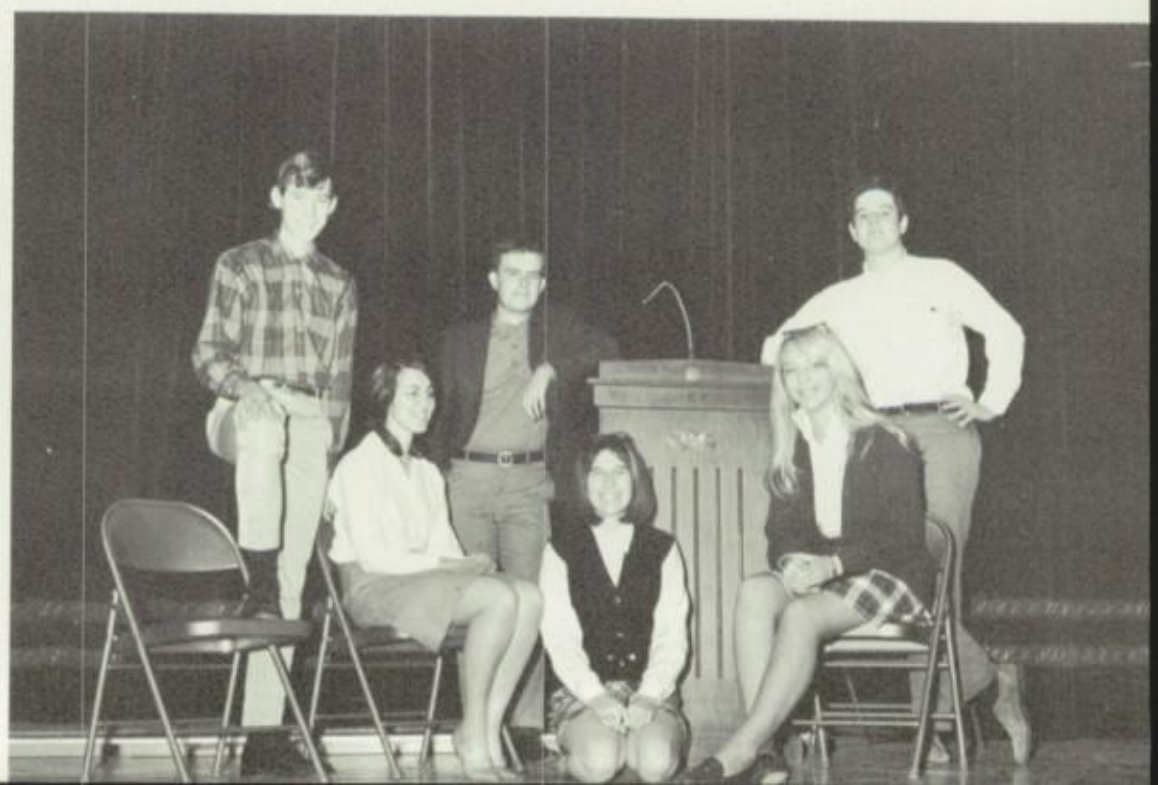
Any boy who has earned a Varsity letter is eligible for membership in Varsity "R." The group supports and furthers sports in R.H.S., chooses the queens of sports for the Coronation Ball and sponsors a student-faculty basketball game.

Murray Nuts

The Murray Nuts prepare for the Marine Physical Fitness Meet in the Spring. These meets are always a success for Ramsey. All members must have the desire for physical fitness.

Debating Club

The Debating Club consists of students who are interested in expressing their own ideas through active debates. Topics which interest the members are chosen for discussion.



School Store Staff

The school store was enlarged this year, and now occupies a room instead of a small counter. All necessary school supplies may be obtained here. The school store staff is responsible for its complete operation.

Library Council

This is a group of students who volunteer to give up their study periods to help in the library. They learn more about the organization of the library by doing this.

Chess Club

As the name of the club indicates, the Chess club offers to all students who enjoy playing chess a chance to play challenging games while improving their skill.

Home Economics Club

This club, for students taking Home Economics, gives them the opportunity to further enjoy their Home Ec interests, and permits them to undertake projects apart from those in the classroom

Drama Club

The Drama Club, a newly formed club at R.H.S., is for students of the Drama course. It allows them to pursue all phases of Drama more deeply than can be done in the classroom alone.

SPORTS

It is a world of the individual against himself, it is his aspirations challenging the capacity of his body. There is no enemy but the straining of every muscle. It is a life of work and precision and sometimes it is rewarded by a cheer or a press clipping. But when the press clipping turns yellow there will still be the memory of that time, perhaps only a moment, when the crowd faded to nothing and the only sound was breathing and the only feeling was the ache of endurance and pushing—pushing until the body soared with the mind and no one else knew what it was to strive.

. . . People

with a Challenge

With an abundance of seniors filling the ranks of the 1968 R.H.S. football team, they had good reason for high hopes. In fact, their first scrimmages seemed to prove that the Rams were headed for a highly successful season. (A 56 point output against Fort Lee exemplified the fact that the Rams had an explosive offense and strong defense.)

The season opened with a game against Midland Park. The determination of the Rams' defense, as shown by a goalline stand with seconds remaining in the game, produced the Rams' first win of the season. The Rams' next win came over Waldwick 13-12, following losses to Indian Hills and Glen Rock. After this victory came two lopsided losses to Hawthorne and Manchester. Captain Lee Vogel's teammates never lost the determination to win, as was shown in their encounter with Northern Highlands. In this game, the Rams produced the best offensive show of the season, and the defense made it difficult for the opposition to move the ball in the second half. The final season game was a loss to Mahwah, Ramsey's traditional Thanksgiving Day rival.

The seniors, Mike Bambrick, Mark Bernstein, John Boudiette, Bill Dietrich, Nick Goebel, Bruce Hampton, Russ Kriete, Ken Larkin, Steve Lynner, Bill McDermott, Tom McKinney, Bob Monroe, Dean Polvere, Craig Redinger, Wally Sweatlock and Captain Lee Vogel are deserving of recognition for a fine effort this past year.

The R.H.S. soccer teams have continued through the long process of development, and this year's team, coached by Ed Groh, advanced greatly towards the final goal. Although the final records do not reveal this, the Rams seemed never to be "out" of a game, and proved this by tieing soccer strongholds such as Northern Highlands. The Seniors on the team, co-captains Rod Kalberer and Steve Farrell, Walter Johnsen, Pete Ricciardi, Bob Schnebel, and Mark German all contributed to achieving an overall record of 2-9-3.

CROSS COUNTRY

Under the coaching of Lou Molino, the 1968 R.H.S. harriers did a fine job, compiling an 11-2 record and earning the N.B.I.A.L. Championship. The senior members Dean Butckovitz, Dave Cribier, Dave Johnson, Jim Kelly, Steve Ferres and Mark Pulsfort provided the performances and leadership which helped the team attain this title.

Congratulations are also in order for the Frosh Cross Country Team who won the Freshman League Championship.

BASKETBALL

The Basketball team of 1968-69, under the fine coaching of Gordon Bedford and leadership of captains Rob Dembia and Chuck Olsen, produced an excellent season, as is the tradition of this sport in R.H.S.

Coach Bedford's Rams began the season slowly, with losses to Pascack Hills and Bogota. However, this trend was not to last long, for the Rams next encountered Waldwick, their first league win. Following this victory, the Rams proceeded to overwhelm the opposition in the Pascack Valley Christmas Tournament, and walked away with the tournament honors. The season brightened and the hoopsters continued to win, compiling an overall record of 15-7. Post-season play in the State Tournament consisted of an outstanding win over Demarest, followed by a loss to Cliffside Park.

The "Nugget" would like to congratulate the seniors—Captains Chuck Olsen and Rob Dembia, Gary Nadler, Bob Kennedy, Mark McDonald, and Bruce Hampton, for contributing towards such an impressive season.

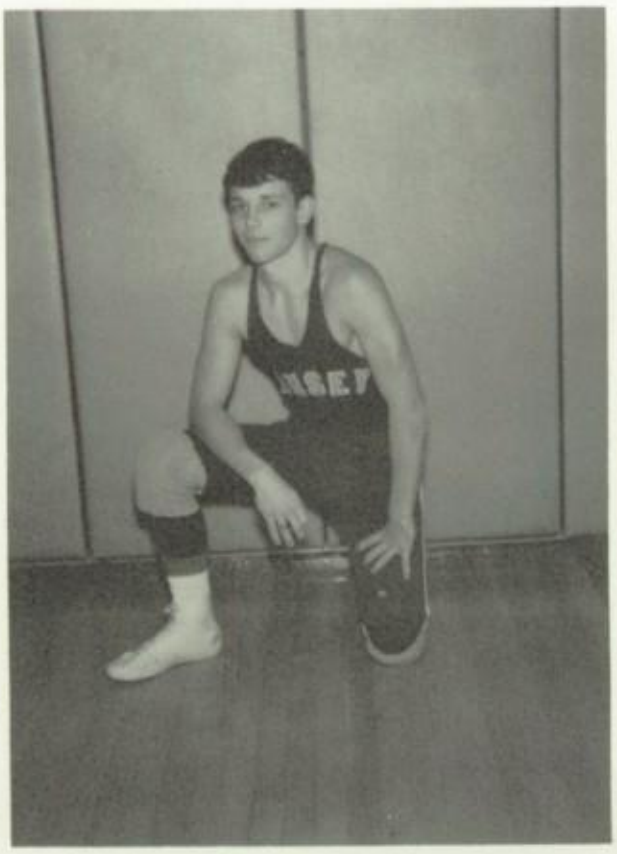
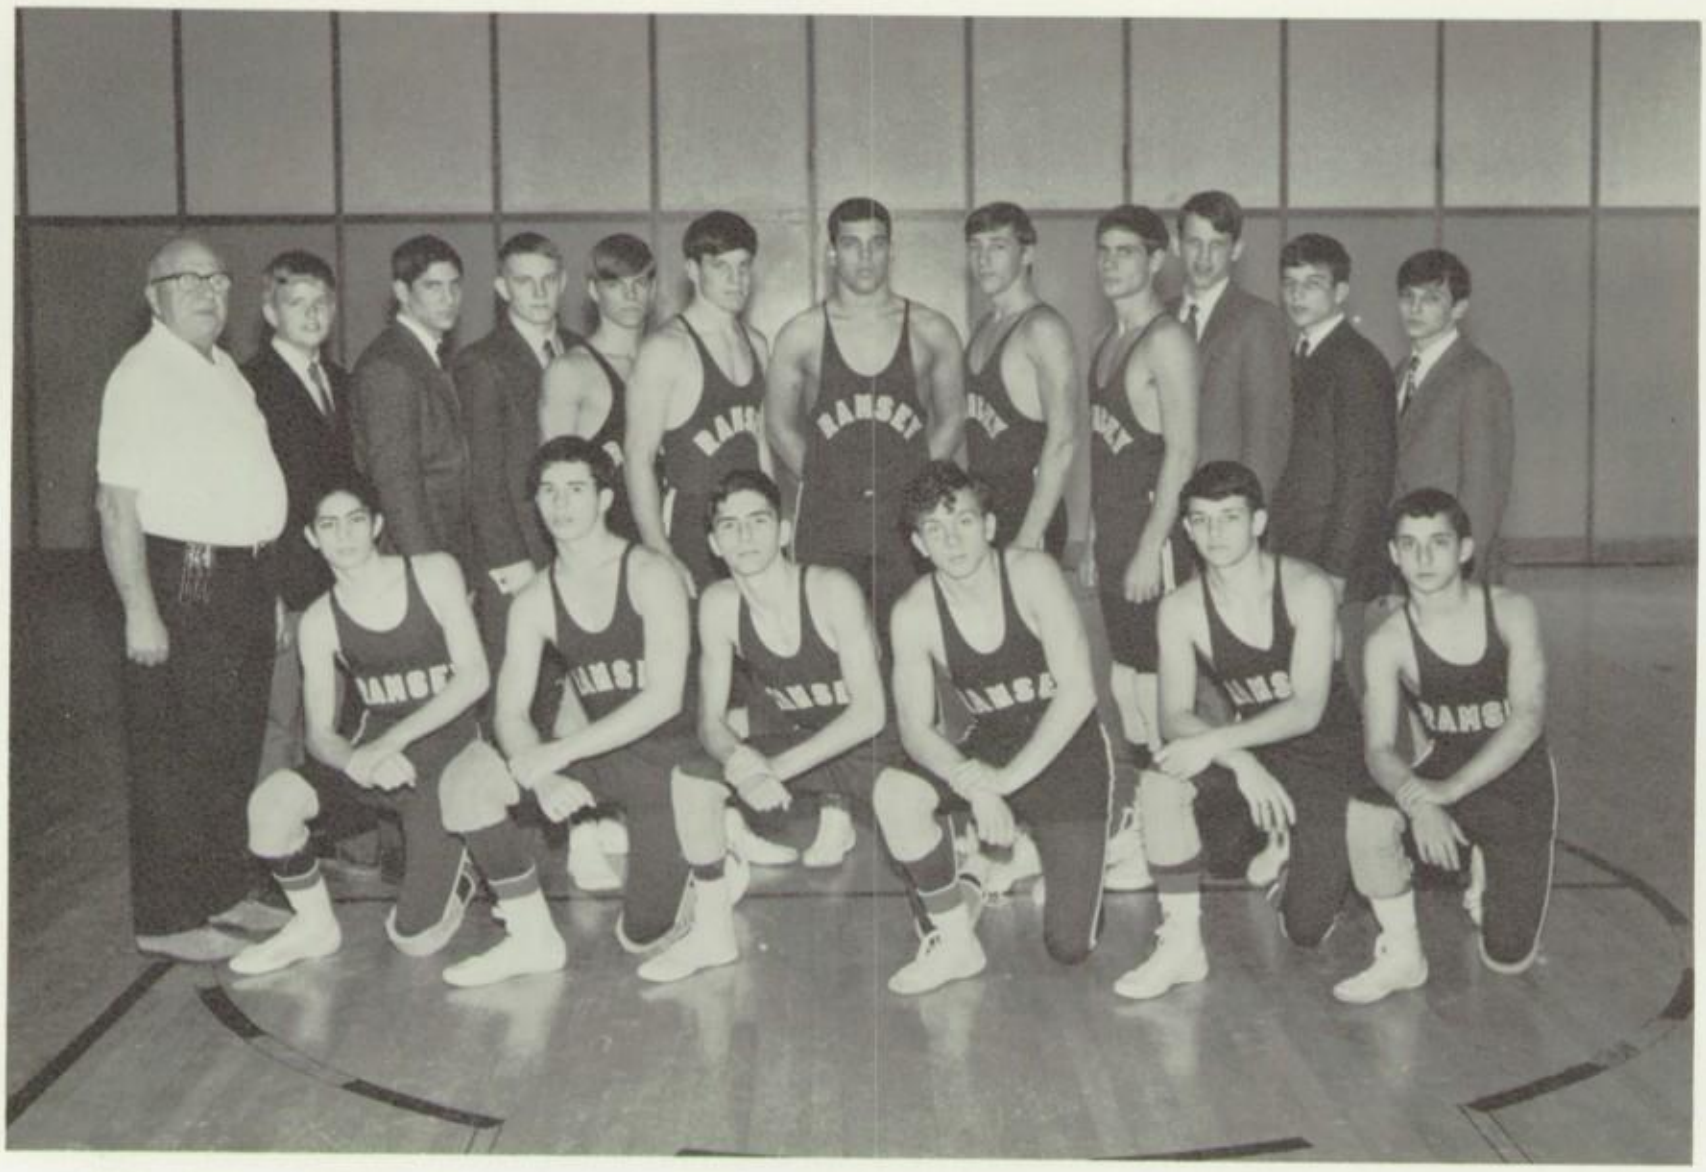
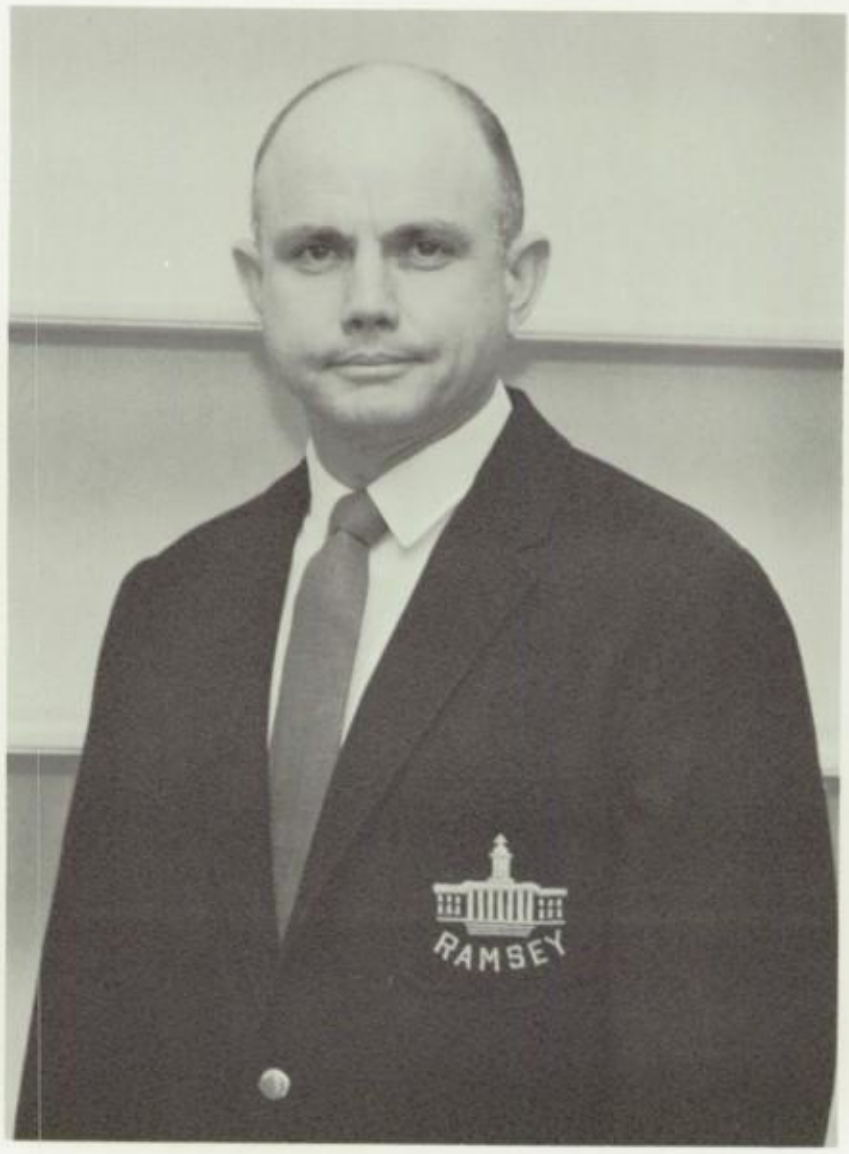
BILL DIETRICH



RICH CONNITO
Co-Captain



The 1968-69 season was one of rebuilding for the R.H.S. Wrestling team, but performances by underclassmen showed that there is much talent on the squad. Greg Muti, a sophomore, produced the finest post-season performance by a win in the District championship, followed by a loss in the Regional tournament. The team had only three seniors, Captains Dean Polvere and Rich Connito, and Bill Dietrich, however much experience was gained from them.



TRACK

The 1969 Ramsey High Track team has lost many performers through graduation last year. There remain, however, a nucleus of experienced seniors and some up and coming underclassmen, whom Coach Ufferfilge hopes will develop into a fine track team. The seniors are Craig Redinger, Bob Strangfeld, Mike Bambrick, Bob Monroe, Steve Ferres, Dave Johnson and Dave Quackenbush.

BASEBALL

The 1969 Ramsey Baseball team showed the makings of a great ball team. In pre-season games, the Rams displayed great spirit and teamwork plus an exceptional bench with depth at every position. Coach Ponchak's seniors on the squad, Captain Bill McDermott, Lee Vogel, injured in pre-season play, Mark Bernstein, Blaine Muzio, Steve Erny, Will Brower, Jeff Meisinger, John Boudiette, Andre Sestac and Gary Nadler, are all experienced ball players and should have a successful baseball season.

TENNIS

Bob Schnebel, Mark Delhauer, and George Seel are the seniors on the 1969 R.H.S. Tennis team, and they hope to aid the team in having a fine season. The team is strong in numbers and should provide the depth needed to develop into a good squad. With a new coach, the Tennis team looks forward to a winning season.

GOLF

Coach James Robertson has no seniors on his 1969 Golf team. However, he can look forward to the play of several well-experienced and spirited underclassmen. Undoubtedly, the coach can look forward to some good matches this year and several fine seasons to follow.

BOWLING

In its first year at Ramsey High School the bowling team, under the direction of Mr. Unterstein, showed its capabilities by winning eight out of twelve matches, thus placing second in the 1968-69 N.B.I.L. Bowling League.
